

About HEATH STONE –Stone Knifeworks (Lifetime Member)

Heath Stone a native Texan has been designing and customizing knives for many years. Heath's ability to create unique designs has offered the knife industry a refreshing glimpse of what the future holds. Heath opened Stone Knifeworks in Baytown, TX to pursue his dream of knife making.

Stone Knifeworks is located in Baytown, TX and is owned by Knife Maker Heath Stone.

We design, build, customize, and repair knives with exotic handle material. Handle designs are picked in a way to compliment the knives instead of competing with them. At Stone Knifeworks our commitment to making quality knives and our expertise is displayed in the knives that we offer.
