

About Michael Prater - Painted Pony Knives

Michael Prater is an American Artisan who embellishes and adds his own unique style to factory made knives. He is located in Flintstone, Georgia. Flintstone is 22 miles south of Chattanooga TN and about 90 miles north of Atlanta.

All Knives are all handcrafted and put through exacting quality control tests and functional inspections before they are offered for sale. Michael is famous for his designs and legendary file work and inlay.

Michael is a lifetime member of the BCCI and he and wife Carolyn have supported the club with several projects over the years.
